

June 4, 2007

Pleasant Grove, Utah- Alpine Plastics, Inc., announces the Traditional Baluster will be the featured Baluster of the Month for July 2007. The Traditional Baluster ordered in the standard 32" or 39" length in white, khaki, and beige will be 10% off the published catalog price during the month of July.

The Traditional Baluster was introduced by Alpine Plastics nearly three years ago and has continued to grow in popularity. It is offered in standard lengths of 32" and 39", custom cuts are available for no additional charge from Alpine Plastics. The Traditional Baluster is offered in white, beige, khaki. Custom colors are available, but minimum quantities apply.

The Traditional Baluster is in stock and ships from Alpine Plastics' Ohio location.

Phil Barker, President of Alpine Plastics remarks, "Its all in the name for the Traditional Baluster. This is one of they oldest baluster styles offered by Alpine Plastics. This particular style is popular both inside and outside of homes."

The Baluster of the Month Program offered by Alpine Plastics will take its featured balusters primarily from the Specialty, Traditional, and Belly families. The baluster will be announced each month in the World Fence News, as well as featured on www.alpineplastics.com. The 10% off will apply to standard cuts and colors. Alpine Plastics standard colors are white, beige, khaki and Kroy tan. The standard lengths are 32", and 39".

Alpine Plastics offers sixteen different balusters, in varying lengths. The colonial is offered in five different widths, 1 1/2", 1 1/4", 1 3/8", 7/8 x 1 1/2", and the new 2". They have a colonial baluster to fit every rail.

Besides being the original creator and producer of the Belly Baluster, Alpine Plastics is also home to the Colonial Family, which includes Colonial Balusters in 1 1/4", 1 3/8", 1 1/2", 1 1/2 x 7/8", the newly introduced 2" baluster, and a 5" x 5" Colonial Porch Post.

Alpine Plastics also manufactures the Classic, French, Tear Drop, Traditional, and Fluted Balusters. They also are reintroducing the Jewel Baluster this spring.

Also offered from Alpine Plastics are the Gingerbread, Victorian, Twist, and Orleans Belly Balusters.

For more information visit www.alpineplastics.com, or call 888.756.6020.